Important Events In The World News

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10-(AP)—The number of atomic bombs the United States has should be kept secret, President Truman said today. A reporter told the president at his news conference that Chairman Lilienthal of the Atomic Energy Commission had suggested this country should tell the world how many atomic bombs it has.

Mr. Truman denied that Lilienthal had made any such suggestion and said that he, personally, is emphatically not in favor of that. And, he added significantly, he does not believe it is a matter for public discussion. The president said he had talked with Lilienthal and Lilienthal had made no such suggestion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10-(P)-Norway's foreign minister Halvard Lange plans to see President Truman tomorrow to discuss his country's defense problems, it was learned today.

A visit to the White House by such a visiting dignitary before he goes home would be customary courtesy; in Lange's case, however, it draws added significance from a congressman's assertion after a talk with Lange that he is confident Norway "already has cast its lot with the west" and will join the North Atlantic Defence Alliance.

That statement was made by Rep. Henry Jackson (D-Wash.) after an off-the-record meeting with the Norwegian official.

Demands Denham be Fired as Attorney For NLR Board

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (P) — The Senate's labor bill hearings were thrown into an uproar today by a demand from Senator Neely (D-WVa) that Robert N. Denham be fired as general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board.

Neely called Denham "biased and prejudiced." His accusation came after Woodruff Randolph, president of the International Typographical Union (AFL), told the committee that Denham made statements in 1947 which "indicated to me that government agencies were hostile Senator Taft (R-O) protested Neely's statement and demanded

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

Carnival

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10-Three distinguished statesmen were on hand to greet the French Gratitude Train when it arrived in Washington - Vice President Barkley and his former colleagues Senators Connally of Texas, Democrat and Vandenberg of Michigan, Republican.

These three have served in the senate together for more than a quarter of a century. Sometimes they have been on opposite sides of bitter political battles, but they have never let party politics in-terfere with personal friendship. They know each other as well as they know the senate - which is better than almost anyone else in Washington. How much Senator Vandenberg knows about the early boyhood of Senator Connally of Texas is his secret.

But at the very conclusion of the ceremonies welcoming the Gratitude Train, as the venerable Tom Connally took a pair of shears and snipped the red, white and blue ribbon sealing the District of Columbia boxcar. His old friend, the senator from Michigan, whispered to the vice president of the United States: "I'll bet that's not the first time Tom has broken into a box Backstage, this battle is raging again inside the rules and ap propriatiosn committees of the 81st Cogress, where a coalition of southern Democrats and Republicans is ganging up to block Truman on reclamation. By Hugh Fullerton, Jr. NEW YORK, Feb. 10-(A)- A couple of unanswered basketball queries from the mid-west: "Is it true that Detroit and Denver will be new tournament centers this spring?" And "What's the story about the NCAA promising the Chicago Stadium one of its sectional playoffs next season?" . . This dept. doesn't know the pitch, but the Detroit yarn is that a newspaper is trying to steam up an eight-team college tourney next month. . . And they say Denver, which lost the AAU championships is angling for the pro tournament that used to be held in Chicago. . . . Also it could be that the Big Nine, whose champs have had to go to New York for the Eastern NCAA playoffs, want to get it in their own backyard.

Cardinal Mindszenty in New York in 1947. The collapse of the Nazis had saved him once

By Dr. Bela Fabian Written exclusively for NEA Service

This is the second time that Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty has been arrested for persistent opposition to a totalitarian regime in Hungary. The Communists, this time, did not even trouble to dream up new charges They borrowed the same ones on which the Arrow Cross, Hungarian Nazi party, imprisoned him for months in 1944.

Long angered by Cardinal Mindszenty's open defiance and his aid to Jews, the Arrow Cross sought by various means to silence him. But a Roman Catholic bishop - as he was then is not easily smoked out of his bishopric in a country that is 62 per cent Catholic. Several times he refused to turn over part of his palace to the Arrow Cross. Late in 1944 the Nazis invaded the palace, and handed him a warrant of arrest.

The Cardinal asked for a little time to comply. While the secret police waited, he donned his most ornate ecclesiastical robes and then reappeared with 28 of his priests similarly garbed. He refused to ride in the police automobile that was waiting. Instead, he insisted on traveling time, by collapse of the Nazi reafoot, in solemn procession at the head of his priestly entourage. As they paraded from the episco-

There, for month after month, Mindszenty and his 28 priests were kept. Fellow prisoners included most of the leaders of the Hungarian resistance to the Nazis. While waiting the outcome of his own trial, the Cardinal saw some of these hanged.

The charges against him were the same on which the Reds tried him four years later — spying for the nited States — trying to return Hungary to the Hapsburg monarchy.

As proof the Arrow Cross offered a letter from Tibor Eckhardt, ex-president of the Small Holders party, addressed from the United States to Bela Varga, urging resistance against the Nazis. It was argued that since Mindszenty had befriended Varga and helped him escape, his guilt was

The cake for this dessert is a delectably light and fluffy one, quick and easy to make. This kind of chocolate sponge roll was one of the first cakes I learned to bake when I was a little girl—and needless to say it was my pride and joy. We used to fill the roll with sweetened whipped cream, but the ice cream filling suggested here is newer and, I think, even more delicious.

Cream Puffs Offer Variety For Dessert

No. 13 of a series of articles on "Cooking the Modern Way" by Edalene Stohr, Home Economist and Lecturer for the National Livestock and Meat Board.

> MENU Swiss Steak Paprika Potatoes Spinach Head Lettuce Salad Russian Dressing Cream Puffs

Coffee Cream puffs are simpler to make than they seem to most people. In fact, if you'll just try them you'll be amazed and want to have them often, for these so-called "fancy" desserts can be served in so many different ways One important thing in preparing cream puffs by any recipe is that the eggs be well-beaten into the melted lard and flour mixture. Add each egg individually and beat thoroughly after each addition. Another important point is the oven temperature. It must be high at first to insure the "puffing" of the cream puffs, then low to dry them out and make them firm. The actual mixing does not take long at all. It is worth while. The variety mentioned earlier can be in shape, filling or frosting. Cream puffs may be of the large puffy dessert type, they may be smaller and more suitable for teas, or they maye be the long slender eclairs so popular as French pastries—these are as easy to make as the other kinds. Just put the batter in a pastry tube or bag, and spread on baking sheets in a long pattern, about 3 or 4 inches in length.

The filling may be cream, chocalte, butterscotch or peppermint pudding, either the packaged variety or of your own making. You may fill it with ice cream, then freeze until serving time if you have the space and facilities. Or if you're looking for a novel appetizer, fill tiny cream puffs with a meat paste.

Toppings for cream puffs may be frosting, a light dusting of

Has No Grounds For Removal

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 10-P)—Gov. Forrest Smith said on Wednesday he does not intend to ask members of the St. Louis police board to resign.

Chairman H. Sam Priest has quit. Smith said he had four men in mind to appoint if the opportunity presents itself, but the remaining three members have stayed in office.

"I do not intend to ask them or any other board to resign," the governor told his news conference this afternoon.

"I can remove them if I have any grounds, but I have none. I think they're doing a good job from all the reports I've heard." Smith said the remaining three board members have no appointment to see him Saturday, as reported in St. Louis.

"I've had no word from them," His statements today reiterated what he said last week about the police board situation.
